

Qantas' 787 Premium Economy seat

New concept in headrest design with integrated ergonomic pillow

Individual night light integrated into seat shell privacy wings

New style leg and foot rest offers a number of ways to support the lower body. When seat is reclined it allows the passenger to be fully supported from head to toe

With a 38-inch pitch, the seating mechanism angles the cushion creating a unique cradle style recline

30 per cent increase in meal table surface area with a dedicated cocktail table

The seat is up to 22.8 inches wide

Five separate storage areas within arm's reach